Boston, September 22, 1930.

Medford Tercentenary Parade

1. Nobles of the Uniformed Units will report at the Medford Armory, Medford Square, Medford, Mass., on Sunday, September 28, at 1 o'clock, p. m. and change to uniforms.
Bill of Dress: The full dress uniform will be worn by all units, except the Third Platoon (White Uniform), the Fourth Platoon (Indian and Continental costumes), Altar Platoon (Puritan costumes).
2. Lines will be formed promptly at 1:45 o'clock, to take busses to position in line of parade.
At the conclusion of the parade the Band will give a short concert and the Patrol put on an exhibition drill at the Medford High School Athletic field, and then return to the Medford Armory.
3. Medford is the "home town" of Potentate Haskell, and in compliment to him, every Noble should make an effort to make this parade and to show the citizens of Medford "Aleppo" at its best.
4. The commanding officer appreciates the attendance and good work of the respective units in the recent parades.

By order of

MAJOR BOLTON.

R. D. LIVINGSTON, Adjutant.
